Tips & Information

Juneteenth became a state holiday in Texas in 1980, and a number of other states subsequently followed suit. In 2021 Juneteenth was made a federal holiday. The day is also celebrated outside the United States, being used by organizations in a number of countries to recognize the end of slavery and to honour the culture and achievements of African Americans.

In accordance with federal civil rights law and the USDA this institution is prohibited from discriminating on the basis of race, color, national origin, sex, gender identity, sexual orientation, disability, age or for prior civil rights activity
